SUNDAY SEMINARS

Business & Wellness Fair

by Jennifer Evans

[S, 10:00 am-2:00 pm, Gymnasium]

The New York Conference Health Ministries Department is excited to host the Annual Business & Wellness Expo. This special event will highlight Adventist-owned businesses and ministries from across our conference. We encourage vendors from all walks of life to participate. We are honored to provide a platform where Adventist business owners can connect, share resources, and promote health, physically, spiritually, and economically.

Safeguarding Youth: Protecting Our Children in an Uncertain World

By Lynee Hamm & Tina Shorey

[S, 2:30-4:30 pm, Admin Bldg]

Children and youth face unique challenges to their physical, mental, and spiritual well-being and safety. Social media and cell phones create a portal of global access to children's minds and bodies, and dysfunctional systems create an environment where mental health challenges such as anxiety, depression, and suicidal ideation thrive. It is difficult to know how to protect and help children! The focus of this seminar is understanding the threats children face, identifying resources, and utilizing tools and safety practices effectively. Participants will explore boundary setting, becoming acquainted with kid's worlds, how to promote physical and psychological safety, knowing the danger signs, establishing open communication, and building resilience. A panel discussion will follow at the close of the seminar. Many resources will be available to take and share. Come join us. Hope to see you there on this very important and vital topic.

MORNING MEETING

Becoming the Hands of Jesus: Mission-Critical Rhythms for the Last Days

By Dr. Angeline David Brauer

[M-F, 11:00 am-12:00 pm, Pavilion]

In order to "Be the Hands of Jesus" in the final days of earth's history, God is calling us to move beyond a "do more" approach to ministry—and to "be more" like Jesus in our thoughts, actions, and relationships. The effectiveness of our witness depends on fully embracing Christ's Method Alone and intentionally addressing the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and relational wounds that are raging in the world—and in our own lives today. As we embrace mission-critical rhythms of living, we become living expressions of His healing presence in a world urgently longing for hope, wholeness, and restoration.

Daily Presentations

1. Take This Bread: How Healing Shapes Our Witness
2. Broken: Living as a Disciple Under Duress
3. This Mind in You: Cultivating Mental Strength for Witnessing
4. The Missing Link: What Makes Ministry Truly Effective
5. RHYTHMS: Sustaining a Life of Healing and Service

WEEKDAY SEMINARS

Assurance, Holiness, and the Holy Flesh Crisis

by Blaine Fults

[M-F, 9:30-10:45 am, Admin. Bldg]

The seminar traces the historical and theological development of the Holiness Movement—from John Wesley’s Aldersgate experience and his teaching on assurance and sanctification, through the “instant sanctification” theology which gave rise to the Holiness/Pentecostal movement in the 19th century. We will highlight its Adventist expression in the 1899 Indiana “Holy Flesh” camp meeting. We will examine the dangers of this theology and practice, and the steps the church took based on Ellen G. White’s corrective counsel. And most of all what lessons we can learn from this as we prepare for Christ’s soon return.

The main goal is to help our members understand the difference between Christ-centered assurance and performance-based spirituality, and to offer a balanced, gospel-grounded framework for holiness that is deeply relevant for Adventists today. This seminar will address historical misunderstandings and contemporary challenges. It will also help Adventist know how to better relate to our Pentecostal neighbors and friends with clarity, grace, and sensitivity.

Monday - Wesley’s Crisis, Aldersgate, and the Birth of Assurance

Tuesday - From Wesley to the Holiness Movement: The Rise of “Instant Sanctification”

Wednesday - Indiana Holy Flesh Movement (1899-1900)

Thursday - Haskell’s Intervention and Ellen White’s Response

Friday - Theological Summary and What We Can Learn for Today.

CONNECT: Pause, Breathe, Reflect, Reset, Reach Out

By Lynee Hamm & Tina Shorey

[M-F, 9:30-10:45 am, Admin. Bldg.]

Each day we will explore what connection looks like through God, Nature, Family/Others, Self Care, Church and Community. Each day we will actively participate in exploring connection with God, through Nature, Family, Others, Self, Church and Community. Many fun surprises in store as we create, commune, converse, connect.

“This is not the time to pull away and neglect meeting together, as some have formed the habit of doing. In fact, we should come together even more frequently, eager to encourage and urge each other onward as we anticipate that day dawning.” Hebrews 10:25

Studies in Revelation: Chapter 5

By Tim Raymond

[M-F, 2:30-3:45 pm, Admin. Bldg.]

Our studies in the book of Revelation continue this year in Revelation chapter five. Scholars agree that this chapter is the key to the whole book. One's understanding of Revelation 5 affects one's understanding of the whole Revelation. Mrs. White stated that: "The fifth chapter of Revelation needs to be closely studied. It is of great importance to those who shall act a part in the work of God for these last days" (9T p267). Come and join us as we study the prophecy to see its "present truth" to us who live in these last days of earth's history.

The Homeschool Life: Sharing the Journey, Gathering Tools and Wisdom

Mystery of the Seven Thunders

[M-F, 9:30-10:45 am, Admin Bldg.]

by Tim Raymond

Come and join us as we attempt to unravel the mystery of the seven thunders of Revelation 10. Mrs. White wrote; "The special light given to John which was expressed in the seven thunders was a delineation of events which would transpire under the first and second angel's messages" 1 MR 99. In this statement, the seven thunders are "events that would transpire," events that were still future in 1900 when this statement was penned. What are the events of the seven thunders that were sealed up?
